

*With paper and jellies and clothing, all laden down.
The morning vapor is rising from the river.
There were about 200, some of them so young.
We wrote letters for them, bound up wounds, prepared Delicacies. We prayed, and sang "A Charge to Keep." The incense has the odor of old paper.*

5/11/10
photographs of
two men
the study of
of Eakins's
picture was taken
man's face
in the book
out clear
2/2/10
see the light
light and shadow
black
C.M.V. 1/10